Year 1 Christmas Celebration

The Year 1 children showed us how good they were at working in a team in their celebration assemblies this week. They recited their poem 'We're Going on a Present Hunt' based on Michael Rosen's famous book, in unison. Thank you to Helen from Watford children's church who came to assembly and helped the children find the clues in the Christmas story that show us why Christians believe Jesus was a very special baby.

Year 2 Christmas Performance

The stage was set, the costumes in place, everyone had learnt their words and it was finally time for the Year 2 performances. On Thursday and Friday parents were treated to an amazing performance set between some uplifting songs—with actions! We all felt very proud and when we asked the children how they felt this is what they said...

I felt really happy and I felt like I was going to laugh because I was going to see my grown up—Ella

I was a bit nervous but I was excited because I hadn't done it for a long time, I was excited because Mummy and Daddy were there—Neive

A bit nervous but then I realised I did it and I thought tomorrow I can prove I can do it better—Ava

I felt scared in case someone laughed at me in the angel dance, Libby helped me not to be scared—Cherry

As the starring role as Joseph I felt quite nervous but I knew I could do it because I believed in myself—James

I felt excited and I like how the grown ups were looking at us and clapping and smiling—Jack

I felt a bit scared because of all the grown ups and I was excited about being there—Alanna

I felt excited and really happy because I saw my daddy. My mummy is coming tomorrow—Marcel

Parking

You might have noticed new signs out at the front of school. Please refrain from parking half on and half off the kerbs, remember the King Will car park is available for parking in the mornings if you can't find a safe place near to school.

Christmas Lunch & Christmas Parties

Our Christmas lunch was a fantastic success, for more information see the blog on our school website. The blog also has details of how to make the special reindeer biscuits we had at lunch time; you might choose to make them at home during the holidays.

On Wednesday we had our class Christmas parties. A special visitor came to see us with a red sack and a present for each class — thank you to Father Christmas and all the grown ups who made the parties such fun for everyone.
